

Lost & Found Information

An Alphabetical List of HELP Sites for Lost & Found Dogs

American Kennel Club Companion Animal Recovery Program

<http://www.akccar.org/>

For animals with tattoos or microchips.

If the animal is enrolled in the program, the owner will be called immediately.

To report a lost or found pet, contact:

AKC Companion Animal Recovery 24 hours a day by:

calling 800-252-7894, faxing 919-233-1290, or via email at found@akc.org

Craig's list

www.Craigsl.com

Dog Owner's Guide Lost Pet page

<http://www.canismajor.com/dog/lostdog.html>

Tips on how to get your dog back

Fido Finder

<http://www.fidofinder.com/>

By breed lists of Lost and Found Dogs

HelpmefindMYPET.com

<http://www.helpmefindmypet.com/>

It is free to be a member and receive lost and found pet notices in your area. When a pet is missing a Lost Pet Alert similar to an "Amber Alert" is sent to members, shelters/rescues, veterinarians, municipalities, media, breeders, groomers, and pet retailers and service providers within a 50 mile radius of where the pet was last seen. A fully staffed call center also provides free services to help non-profit shelter and rescue services to identify microchipped pets. For more information visit www.helpmefindmypet.com or call 866-699-3463.

K9 Amber Alert: EDITORS CHOICE

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/K9AmberAlert/>

This is a nationwide group to be used for posting alerts for missing dogs throughout the United States and Canada. Must join to post. This is a moderated list. Note the rules. Photos and other attachments will be stripped so be prepared to narrate or post links to photos, fliers, etc. elsewhere on the internet. (i.e. www.Dogster.com to name only one such site.)

Katrina Animal Reunion Team (KART)

<http://www.findkpets.org/>

<http://home.mindspring.com/~tisme/index.html>

See below

Katrina/Wilma/Rita Lost and Found

<http://disaster.petfinder.com/emergency>

<http://www.lostkatrinapets.com>

These two sub-lists are dedicated to the reunion of pets, separated from their families due to the devastation caused by Hurricane Katrina and Rita, with their original families. It may also contain postings of pets found without means of identification.

Lost & Found Information

Lost And Pound

<http://www.lostandpound.com/index.php>

Lostandpound.com allows pet owners to post pictures and descriptions of their lost pets including the location where they were last seen. Upon entering this information, a LOST PET ALERT is sent immediately via email to a combination of participating veterinarians, animal shelters, police stations, media outlets, pet service companies and “neighborhood watch volunteers” within a 15-mile radius of where your pet was lost.

Lost Dog Search

<http://www.lostdogsearch.com/>

Based in southeastern Massachusetts, Lost Dog Search is a one-person volunteer operation that provides free information, guidance, and support through this website, emails, and phone calls.

Lost Paws:

<http://www.lostpaws.com/>

A free service to help reunite owners with their lost animals. You can report a lost or found pet or search the reports already in their database.

Lostpaws.com partners with the non-profit organization Dreampower Animal Rescue 501(c)(3).

Lost Pets International

<http://www.flealess.org/lostpets/>

Provides links by state for posting notices of lost and missing pets

Lost Pet SOS

<http://lostpetsos.org/>

Provides a searchable database of lost and found pets

Missing Pet Network

www.missingpet.net

The MPN is a group of volunteers sponsored by the USDA Animal Care Office, who help people find missing pet animals. They accept no money, make no endorsements, and use no advertising.

Missing Pet Partnership

<http://www.lostapet.org/>

Provides information on the behavioral patterns of lost dogs and tips on how to create giant, florescent poster-boards that have proven highly effective in recovering lost dogs

National Dog Registry

<http://www.nationaldogregistry.com/>

Tracing of lost dogs with tattoos

Operation KONA

<http://www.operationkona.org/>

Lost and Found Pets across the U.S.

Lost & Found Information

Pet Detectives, Inc.

<http://www.petdetectivesinc.com>

Licensed PI Coaching by phone or on site search

Pet Hunters International

<http://www.pethunters.com/>

Maintains a national listing of certified pet detectives who offer lost pet services Some resouces have MAR (missing animal response) cat detection dogs and/or MAR trailing dogs trained to track the scent trail of lost dogs while others offer consultations.

Petfinder

www.petfinder.com

Pet Finder is a site used by shelters and rescue groups to post adoptable dogs. Many strays not claimed by their families end up being posted for adoption at Pet Finder. This site should be checked routinely when searching for any missing dog! Click on "Pet Search" (as if you were looking to adopt a dog of a certain breed) and you can see photos of various available dogs. It would be great if someone had the time to simply research posts to the Amber Alert list and cross check them to the Pet Finder web site-- even up to two weeks after a missing dog is posted. You might just find lost dogs listed for adoption on this site! :)

Returnmypet.com

<http://www.returnmypet.com/>

Offers advice and links to permit you to post an ad for a month.

Sherlock Bones

<http://www.sherlockbones.com/>

Commercial service for locating lost pets.